

I do not believe that cell-phone use on an aircraft is a very good idea. I have confronted people in restaurants that were interrupting my dinner while they were yakking on their cell-phone. I think it is poor taste for someone to disrupt others, compare it to cigarette smoking. Leave the ban in place and let us have some solace when so confined.